REMARKS

In the Office Communication of August 25, 2005, states that the Applicants have not complied with 37 CDR 1.111 and 1.143 since Applicants have not made a provisional election. Specifically, Applicants have not elected a single disclosed species of reorientation mechanisms for prosecution on the merits. Applicants herein elect group k and submit that claim 13 reads on group k.

Thus, to clarify, Applicants have elected: Group I and have stated that claims 1-13 and 23-34 are readable on Group I; Group a and have stated that claims 1-7, 9-13, and 23-34 are readable on Group a; Group d and have stated that claims 1-13 and 23-34 are readable on Group d; Group k and have stated that claim 13 is readable on Group k; Group l and have stated that claims 23 and 25 are readable on Group l; Group p and have stated that claims 28-30 are readable on Group p; Group s and have stated that claims 28-30 are readable on Group s.

Applicants have also chose not to elect Groups e, q, and r, thus as stated in the Office Action of June 15, 2005, election of groups f, g, v, w, x, y, z, and aa is not required. Thus, a statement of which claims are readable on Groups e, q, r, f, g, v, w, x, y, z, and aa is not necessary. The current Office communication requests that Applicants specifically state which claims are readable on Groups I, a, d, e, l, p, s, q, r, and one of h, i, j, or k. Applicants above and previously stated which claims are readable on Groups I, a, d, l, p, s, and k. Applicants submit that although Groups e, q, and r are were not elected, Applicants submit that claims 1-13 and 23-34 are readable on Group e, that claims 31-32 are readable on Group q, and that claims 33-34 are readable on Group r.
